1. Introduction

1.1 This procedure is designed to help and encourage all employees to achieve and maintain appropriate standards of conduct, performance and behaviour. The aim of the procedure is to ensure:

- NIPEC can operate effectively as an organisation
- Disciplinary action taken is fair, appropriate and consistent and all who are involved in the process are treated with dignity and respect
- Managers, employees and their representatives are aware of their rights and obligations in matters relating to disciplinary and appeals procedure.

1.2 This procedure applies to all NIPEC staff.

1.3 This disciplinary procedure should be read in conjunction with the NIPEC's Disciplinary Rules, which are set out in Appendix 1 of this Procedure.

1.4 Issues of competence and job performance will be dealt with under the NIPEC's Capability/Competency Procedure.

2. Guidance and Definitions

2.1 "NIPEC Employee" is anyone employed by NIPEC.

2.2 "Investigating Officer" is any person authorised to carry out an investigation into alleged breaches of discipline to establish the facts of the case.

2.3 "Presenting Officer" is usually the investigating officer and presents the evidence to the Disciplinary Panel

2.4 "Employee Representative" is any employee of NIPEC who is an accredited representative of a trade union, professional organisation or staff organisation or a full time official of any of the above organisations or a fellow NIPEC employee. Legal representation will not be permitted at any stage of this Disciplinary Procedure.

2.5 "Disciplinary Panel" is the person or persons authorised to take disciplinary action.

2.6 "Misconduct" is a breach of discipline which is considered potentially serious enough to warrant recourse to formal disciplinary action (please refer to Disciplinary Rules).

2.7 "Gross Misconduct" is a serious breach of discipline which effectively destroys the employment relationship, and/or confidence which NIPEC must have in an employee or brings NIPEC into disrepute (please refer to Disciplinary Rules).

3. Principles

3.1 The following general principles are applicable to all disciplinary cases:

- Employees are directed by their contract of employment to ensure they familiarise themselves with these procedures and the consequences of breaching the NIPEC's Disciplinary Rules

- In cases where an investigation is necessary, disciplinary action will not be taken against an employee until such an investigation is completed. However, NIPEC reserves the right to proceed with disciplinary action where an employee fails to co-operate with an investigation.
- Where a case is being investigated under this Disciplinary Procedure, the employee will be provided with a copy of this procedure as soon as possible. At every stage in the procedure the employee will be advised of the nature of the complaint, and will be given the opportunity to state their case before any decision is made.
- At all stages during the disciplinary procedure, the employee will have the right to be accompanied and/or represented by an employee representative.
- No employee will be dismissed for a first breach of discipline except in the case of gross misconduct where the disciplinary action may be summary dismissal.
- An employee will have the right to appeal against any disciplinary action imposed.
- In deciding upon appropriate disciplinary action, consideration will be given to the nature of the offence, any mitigating circumstances and previous good conduct.
- NIPEC will collect information from relevant witnesses. NIPEC employees who are witnesses to alleged misconduct will be required to give evidence and may be required to attend disciplinary meetings and/or hearings.
- At all stages disciplinary proceedings will be completed as quickly as practicable.
- Any disciplinary action will be appropriate to the nature of the proven misconduct.

4. Arrangements for Meetings/Hearings

- 4.1 Employees are expected to participate fully with the disciplinary process. If a NIPEC employee cannot attend a meeting/hearing through circumstances outside her/his control and unforeseeable at the time the meeting/hearing was arranged they must notify the Business Services Organisation's (BSO) Human Resource (HR) Department and provide reasons.
- 4.2 NIPEC will arrange one further meeting/hearing. Failure to attend this rearranged meeting/hearing may result in the disciplinary process continuing in their absence based on the information available.

5. Action in Particular Cases

5.1 Disciplinary action in the case of an employee representative, who is an accredited representative of a Trade Union, Professional Organisation or Staff Organisation,

Although normal disciplinary standards apply to the conduct of an employee representative, no disciplinary action beyond the informal stage should be taken until the matter has been discussed with a full-time official of the employee's trade union, professional organisation or staff association.

5.2 Police enquiries, legal proceedings, cautions and criminal convictions not related to employment

Police enquiries, legal proceedings, caution or a conviction relating to a criminal charge shall not be regarded as necessarily constituting either a reason for disciplinary action or a reason for not pursuing disciplinary action. Consideration must be given as to the extent to which the offence alleged or committed is connected with or is likely to adversely affect the employee's performance of duties, calls into question the ability or fitness of the employee to perform his or her duties or where it is considered that it could bring NIPEC into disrepute. In situations where a criminal case is pending or completed, NIPEC reserves its right to take internal disciplinary action.

5.3 NIPEC's duty to make referrals

NIPEC is required, where appropriate under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (Northern Ireland) Order 2007, to make a referral if a person working with children or vulnerable adults has been dismissed, would have been dismissed, or considered for dismissal had he/she not resigned, or has been suspended, or transferred from a Child Care or vulnerable adults position.

Further, NIPEC has a duty to make referrals to relevant professional bodies, e.g. NMC, GMC, NI Social Care Council, HPC and also to the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) in appropriate cases and share relevant information.

In cases of alleged theft, fraud or misappropriation of funds, action should include consultation with NIPEC's Head of Corporate Services (HCS), Department of Health and the PSNI as appropriate.

5.4 Suspension from Work

Management reserves the right to immediately suspend an employee with pay. Precautionary suspension must be authorised by the appropriate senior manager or suitable deputy.

The reason for suspension should be made clear to the employee and confirmed in writing. When the reason for suspension is being conveyed to the employee, where possible, he or she should be accompanied by an employee/trade union representative. Suspension is not disciplinary action, and as a consequence carries no right of appeal. The appropriate senior manager should consider other alternatives, for example transfer of employee, restricted or alternative duties if considered feasible and appropriate.

Any decision to precautionary suspend from work, restrict practice, or transfer temporarily to other duties must be for the minimum necessary period of time. The decision must be reviewed, by the appropriate senior manager, every 4 weeks.

6. Disciplinary Procedure

This section sets out the steps which may be taken following a breach of the NIPEC's Disciplinary Rules as set out in Appendix 1.

6.1 Counselling and Informal Warnings

- 6.1.1 A Line Manager has the discretion to address minor issues through either counselling or the issue of an informal warning. At this informal stage matters are best resolved directly by the employee and Line Manager concerned.
- 6.1.2 Counselling does not constitute formal disciplinary action. Counselling should be conducted in a fair and reasonable manner and the line manager should ensure that confidentiality is maintained. This should take the form of pointing out any shortcomings of conduct or performance and encouraging improvement and may include an agreed training or development plan. It is the Line Manager's responsibility to ensure that notes of the counselling meeting are shared with the employee, are stored securely and that the situation is monitored.

This counselling does not in any way prevent the Line Manager from instigating formal disciplinary action if appropriate. If the faults are repeated, or the conduct does not improve, the formal disciplinary procedure may be instigated.

- 6.1.3 The Line Manager has the discretion to issue an informal warning. If this is applicable, the Line Manager will follow these steps:
- Line Manager investigates matter
 - Line Manager meets with employee
 - Line Manager issues informal warning
 - Informal warning is confirmed to employee in writing and is deleted from their record after 6 months
 - Employee has right to appeal to the next line manager
 - Appeal request should be submitted within 7 working days.
- 6.1.4 The right to be accompanied by an employee representative will apply throughout the informal process.
- 6.1.5 In the event that issues cannot be resolved with counselling or informal warnings the Formal Disciplinary Procedure should be invoked.

Formal Disciplinary Procedure

6.2 Investigation

- 6.2.1 The Investigating Officer is responsible for establishing the facts of the case. The investigation will be conducted as quickly as is reasonable taking account of the extent and seriousness of the allegations. The Investigating Officer should meet with the employee who may be accompanied and/or represented by an employee representative and ensure that they are given a copy of the procedure. The Investigating Officer should explain the alleged misconduct to the employee. The Investigating Officer should ensure that any witnesses are interviewed and that all relevant documentation is examined before a decision is made on the appropriate course of action.

- 6.2.2 It should be noted that, if an issue has already been investigated under another agreed investigatory procedure and disciplinary action has been recommended, then there is no requirement to reinvestigate under this Disciplinary Procedure.

6.3 Hearing

- 6.3.1 If it is considered that there is a case to be answered, the employee should be called to attend a disciplinary hearing before the appropriate Disciplinary Panel. A copy of this Disciplinary Procedure should accompany the letter advising of the hearing. The employee should be informed in writing of the allegation and the right to be represented. Any documentation intended for use by either party at the Disciplinary Hearing should be exchanged no later than five working days prior to the hearing.
- 6.3.2 The Disciplinary Panel is made up of 2 managers at an appropriate level – see Appendix 2.
- 6.3.3 Where an employee's professional competence/conduct is in question the Disciplinary Panel may, if needed, invite a suitably qualified experienced person from the same profession to attend the Hearing as an expert adviser. The adviser does not have a decision-making role.
- 6.3.4 The employee shall normally be present during the hearing of all the evidence put before the Panel; however the employee may choose not to attend the hearing. It should be made clear that the hearing will proceed in his or her absence. Any submission by the employee in writing or by his or her representative will be considered. NIPEC reserves the right to proceed to hear a disciplinary case in the absence of the employee where no adequate explanation is provided for the employee's absence.
- 6.3.5 Any witnesses required to attend the hearing should be granted the appropriate time off from their work. The employee representative cannot be a witness or potential witness to the disciplinary process.
- 6.3.6 At the Hearing, the case against the employee and the evidence should be detailed by the presenting officer and the employee should set out his/her case and answer the allegations.
- 6.3.7 Witnesses may be called by either party and can be questioned by the other party and/or by the Disciplinary Panel. The presenting officer and the employee/representative will have the opportunity to make a final submission to the Disciplinary Panel at the end of the Hearing with the presenting officer going first. The Disciplinary Panel has the right to recall any witnesses but both sides and their representatives have the right to be present.

6.4 Disciplinary Decision

- 6.4.1 The Disciplinary Panel will review all the evidence presented before taking its decision. The Disciplinary Panel will determine on a balance of probability whether the allegations were or were not proven. Before deciding on the appropriate disciplinary action, the Disciplinary Panel should consider any mitigating circumstances put forward at the hearing and take account of the employee's record.

- 6.4.2 The decision should be communicated in writing to the employee normally within 7 working days of the date of the hearing or as soon as reasonably practicable. In the case of formal or final written warnings, the timescale of any sanction should be specified. The employee should be advised of the consequences of further breaches of discipline and informed of the right and method of appealing the decision.
- 6.4.3 In the case of dismissal, the employee should be advised that the decision of the Disciplinary Panel will be fully implemented pending appeal.
- 6.4.4 The appeal hearing should be organised in a timescale which allows proper representation to occur, consistent with principles of natural justice. In all circumstances an appeal hearing shall be organised within 12 weeks of the original hearing.
- 6.4.5 Pay pending appeal will only be paid in circumstances where management alone have failed to convene an appeal hearing within the aforementioned timescale. In this circumstance payment will be recommenced from the point in time that the notice period ends.
- 6.4.6 Pay pending appeal will not apply in circumstances where the employee was summarily dismissed.

6.5 Disciplinary Action

The Disciplinary Panel may impose one or more of the following disciplinary sanctions / actions

- 6.5.1 Formal Warning - a formal warning may be given following misconduct or where misconduct is repeated after informal action has been taken. A formal warning will remain on the employee's record for a period of one year. The warning should be accompanied by advice to the employee on the consequence of any repetition or continuance of the misconduct that has given rise to the disciplinary sanction/action.
- 6.5.2 Final Warning - a final warning may be given when the misconduct is considered more serious or where there is a continuation of misconduct which has led to previous warnings and/or informal action. A final warning will remain on the employee's record for a period of 2 years. The warning should be accompanied by advice to the employee on the consequence of any repetition or continuance of the misconduct that has given rise to the disciplinary sanction/action.
- 6.5.3 Transfer and/or Downgrading - the Disciplinary Panel may decide that the most appropriate course of action should be either transfer, downgrading or both. These disciplinary actions may be imposed in addition to either a formal warning or a final warning as appropriate.
- 6.5.4 Dismissal – Dismissal will apply in situations where previous warnings issued have not produced the required improvement in standards or in some cases of Gross Misconduct.

6.5.5 Summary Dismissal – in some cases where Gross Misconduct has been established, an employee may be summarily dismissed, i.e. without payment of contractual or statutory notice.

NOTE: If the misconduct is proven the Disciplinary Panel may recommend that any associated financial loss should be recouped from the employee. This should be referred to the NIPEC’s Head of Corporate Services for further consideration.

7. Disciplinary Appeals

- 7.1 An employee wishing to appeal disciplinary action should write to the BSO’s HR Department stating the grounds of their appeal within 7 working days of receipt of the letter containing the disciplinary decision. The appeal hearing will be arranged as early as practicable and the employee will have the right to be represented. The employee will normally receive 7 working days’ notice of the date of the appeal hearing.
- 7.2 The Appeal Panel will comprise 2 managers from NIPEC who have had no previous involvement in the case and who are normally at a more senior level than the Disciplinary Panel.
- 7.3 The Appeal hearing will be a full rehearing of the case.
- 7.4 The Appeal Panel will have the authority to confirm, set aside, or reduce the decision of the Disciplinary Panel. It will not have the right to increase the decision of the Disciplinary Panel. Where the decision of the Appeal Panel involves a variation of the original disciplinary decision, it should state the reasons and any operative date. The decision of the Appeal Panel is final and will be conveyed in writing to the appellant within seven working after the hearing. In the event of delay a written explanation will be provided.
- 7.5 In the event of reinstatement following an appeal the appropriate back payment will be made.

8. Review of the Procedure

This procedure should be reviewed periodically in consultation with NIPEC’s Joint Negotiation Consultative Committee.
